

Introduction

Focus Questions

In this chapter, Claire and Gilles have conversations with people in the community. There is a common reason for chatting with, or writing to, neighbours. Almost everyone wants to get things done. They need others to do their part.

1. What would you say to the following people to get them to move their vehicle, which is blocking your car?

A. To my brother or sister, I would say,

B. To my teenage child, I would say,

C. To my new neighbour, I would say,

D. To a police officer, I would say,
