

Introduction

Focus Questions

1. Recycling is common in many communities. People put empty bottles and cans in recycling bins. Recycling is an obligation and, in some places, a rule.

Imagine that the people below put an empty bottle in a garbage bin instead of a recycling bin. Would you say anything to change their behaviour?	If so, write the words you would say to get the people to put the bottle in the recycling bin. If you wouldn't say anything, leave a space blank.
1. A long-time friend visiting your home
2. A new friend visiting your home
3. A stranger on the street
4. Your parent visiting your home
5. Your teenage child in your home
6. A friend's new significant other who is in your home for the first time
7. Your in-laws visiting your home

Important! Download and save this fillable PDF on to your computer, and then complete the task using the PDF that you saved on your computer.

2. Use a checkbox to show who you learn the following rules from. You can check more than one box.

Who do you learn these “rules” from?	Your family	Your culture	Our society	The government
1. You shouldn’t borrow money from friends.
2. You can’t park here unless you have a handicap parking permit .
3. You mustn’t leave food or garbage out at your campsite.
4. You should or shouldn’t make eye contact with people when speaking with them.
5. You shouldn’t give advice to people you don’t know.
6. You must ask before you use someone else’s cellphone.
7. You cannot say “no” directly.
8. You have to lock your vehicle’s doors.				